

innovative CRAFT

SPECIAL EVENTS

Taking Time... with Food & Drink,
Thursday 11th March, 6-8pm

Slow Food Edinburgh is bringing together the values implicit in this art with those found in good local food. A series of events will offer a special tour of the exhibition combined with an introduction to and tasting of local food and drink.

Thursday 11th March features introductions to craft beer by Stewart Brewing of Loanhead and artisan cheesemaking from Jane Stuart of the St Andrews Farmhouse Cheese Company.

Tickets £10

To book please contact:

events@slowfoodedinburgh.co.uk

Dovecot Studios

Taking Time: Approaches to Textiles, Saturday 13th March, 11am-1pm

Amy Houghton and Shane Waltener, are joining us in the Dovecot building on to offer different insights into their work as contemporary textile artists.

Amy Houghton will give an informal talk, in conversation with Amanda Game, based on her piece in Taking Time that explores the archives of the Dovecot Studios in Mount Stuart.

Shane Waltener will be working on a site-specific installation live in the Dovecot building, using wool from the studios along with weaving and knitting techniques to create a unique piece/performance on the stair-well – to reserve a place please sign-up or email:
info@innovativecraft.co.uk